MAJOR DUTIES:

The complete description may be reviewed in the Human Resources Management Division. The following duties and responsibilities are taken from the position description and are considered to be a brief extract. The incumbent for this position serves as a Readjustment Counseling Assistant/Office Manager on a multi-disciplinary team located in a community based Vet Center that provides veterans with community outreach, counseling, therapy, treatment, and direct services and referral to VA and community resources. The Readjustment Counseling Assistant supports the technical/clinical work of the Vet Center professional staff by serving as the initial contact for veterans and their significant others who seek treatment, experience problems, and request information. The incumbent makes initial determination of veterans' eligibility for services, initiating search for verification, if needed. The incumbent receives contacts from and provides assistance to government representatives, representatives of veterans service organizations, private physicians and attorneys, administrative and professional staff at VA facilities, educational institutions and medical facilities and other high-level public and private agencies. The incumbent carries out a broad range of difficult contacts involving typical problems and complex situations. Incumbent designs, organizes and maintains filing systems. Independently monitors supplies and requisitions needed for office equipment, supplies, and resources. Organizes and maintains a flexible, yet effective administrative workload schedule, determining daily and weekly priorities. Serves as timekeeper; maintains personnel records and time cards.

THIS POSITION IS EXCLUDED FROM THE BARGAINING UNIT

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

Eligibility: U.S. Office of Personnel Management Qualification Standards Handbook for GS-102 series applies and may be reviewed in the Human Resources Management Service office. Regulatory requirements such as "time-in-grade" and "time after competitive appointment" are applicable.
